BIGG SEXYY

Anissa Hampton

Born in Chicago. Raised in Jackson, Mississippi, since age 6. An opera-trained voice that has sung at Carnegie Hall, now fronting a Southern soul show built to own the room.

Anissa Hampton, known on stage as Bigg Sexyy, is a soul and blues artist with a voice that earns your attention and songs that justify it. After years singing background for Willie Clayton, Calvin Richardson and Keeshea Pratt, she formed the H-Funk Band in 2018 and has opened for Brian McKnight, Regina Belle and Bobby Rush. The band is available as a 3-piece, 4-piece, or 5+ piece.
